▶ We've got a new magazine service that brings great popular magazines in full-text to your computer or mobile device. Here's what Zinio has to say about themselves: "Zinio delivers the ultimate magazine experience for the digital age. From the best in news, politics, technology, art, style, travel and more. Zinio's products include the world's largest newsstand and top-rated applications for iPad, iPhone, Android and Windows 8. Readers can store and read full magazines offline, sync libraries across multiple devices and search digital magazine archives. Zinio also enables readers to share their favorite articles through Facebook and other social networks. The company was born in 2001 in San Francisco and has offices in New York, London and Barcelona."

- ▶ For more information, go to the NVC Library Database page. Consider taking a quick tutorial to learn more about setting up a free account to begin using Zinio.
- ▶ How Does Zinio Work?
This service requires the creation of two account logins -- a SNAP-Zinio account to check out magazines from the library's collection, and a free Zinio.com account for downloading and reading magazines.
  - 1 - On the Zinio page, Log in or Create New Account.
  - 2 - Browse the available magazine titles and select the magazine(s) of your choice.
  - 3 - After you select a magazine in the our collection, a second browser window will open to Zinio.com. Follow the "sign in here" link or create a free Zinio.com account (we recommend using the same log-in information used for your SNAP-Zinio account).
  - 4 - After checking out a magazine, you can read it online or with a Zinio Reader app.
